

SIGNIFICANT TAX CREDIT

(US Federal and State)

for Kinetisense Practitioners

Section 41 Research and Development (R&D) Tax Credit Using the Kinetisense

Kinetisense is excited to announce that its technology qualifies for the United States Section 41 Tax Rebate. Practitioners using Kinetisense technology have had a 100% success rate when applying for this Tax Rebate. Some practitioners have generated over $20,000 in rebates, per tax credit year. The amount of tax credit is dependent on various factors including the amount of staff using the technology and clinic size. The average tax credit per chiropractic clinic is approximately $7,000 per year.

What is the Section 41 Tax Credit?

Kinetisense is excited to announce that its technology qualifies for the United States Section 41 Tax Rebate. Practitioners using Kinetisense technology have had a 100% success rate when applying for this Tax Rebate. Some practitioners have generated over $20,000 in rebates, per tax credit year. The amount of tax credit is dependent on various factors including the amount of staff using the technology and clinic size. The average tax credit per chiropractic clinic is approximately $7,000 per year.

Why Kinetisense for the Tax Credit?

There is a strict checklist for the implemented systems that qualify for the tax credit. According to the Quartermaster Tax Management company, the experts in this space, by using the Kinetisense technology, practitioners can generate a much higher return. Kinetisense is one of the few solutions that meet the clinical requirements for the Section 41 R&D Tax Credit.

How Do I Apply for the Credit?

For new clinics, proudly join the Kinetisense family to qualify for this Tax Rebate. If you are currently using Kinetisense, you will be able to claim the Tax Rebate for up to three years retroactively.

Please contact Kinetisense at info@kinetisense.com or Quartermaster Tax Management directly at contact@quartermastertax.com to learn specifics about this program.